* Because Leo's are such hedonists there's lots of people to wish happy birthday to in the next few weeks. So you know who you have to give pressies to and be extra nice here's the list: Adam, Talei, Sara, Naomi, Neil, Northern Pete, Matt G, Fiona, Zippy, Robin Knight, Malcolm Russell and probably a whole lot more who also get all our best wishes or comiserations.

* Are we ready for this? Yes, there's a new club called Core opening up specifically for ravers. The plan is that our favourite DJs will be playing there every Thursday, Friday and Saturday night with memberships entitling you to cheap entry. The decor is said to be 'wicked' and the management are promised to be raver friendly which means we can drink as much water as we like without feeling guilty about it. Sounds bloody brilliant to us!

* Get your diaries out again and ink in these dates: Prodigy 2 August 8; Bubble August 15; Psychosis One Year On August 29; Sweet Science September 5; Tribal September 19. Enough??

HALLELUJAH NEEDS YOU...

We're still looking for the plot we lost a few issues ago so now's your big chance to get all your brilliant ideas in print. If you're semi-literate, artistic and/or humorous send us your stuff. The address is PO BOX 651 Woollahra. 2025

CHARLEY SAYS

Life as a raver can be fraught with unexpected social traumas, trials and tribulations. Fortunately Charley is here to help. Write with your problems to 'Charley Says', PO Box 651 Woollahra NSW 2025. And Fuck Off.

Dear Charley,
What the fuck's going on. Why does 3D suddenly think it's a rave fanzine? Who really wants to know what they think about our scene? And what about all these parties putting in all those stupid big ads all the time? No wonder the raves are full of fuckwits these days. What happened to the good old days when raves were underground affairs for a few hundred of our closest friends? Quality raves are the result of two things - quality music and quality people. Give me a dusty dingy warehouse with a smoke machine and a puddle and I'm happy. Who cares about how many multi-function polis vari lites and trillion colour lasers you have. All we need is the right vibe and the right music (the right drugs help but we wouldn't know about that lately either). Pissed Off, Darlinghurst.

Dear Pissed,
Wrote this on a Tuesday did we? I can understand your gripes but there seems to be very little we can do about this state of affairs. Some promoters keep promising that they're going to start doing smaller events that won't be publicised, thus separating the dance party style dos from the more intimate soirees we know and love (and miss). As for 3D - we'll let them have their little fantasy about being our leading dance/rave guide - they'll only do it as long as they have the advertising anyway. And since they're more concerned with how people look than music there's no chance that publication will ever be able to understand what we're up to.

Dear Charley,
Are you suffering from short term memory loss, blurred vision, two day come down, inability to dance for more than a couple of tunes at a time, lower back pain, etc? We are so can you tell us where the Es are so we can stop trying to do everything else in such extreme quantities?
Sam the Unsorted.

Dear Sam,
Don't you know that you don't need drugs to have a good time?

Dear Charley,
What do you mean it's over??? What do you mean take off the glasses???
Didn't Eon, Leichhardt.

Dear Didn't,
What do you mean. It all makes perfect sense to me...

Why have we put a gun on the cover...? We thought it was pretty obvious really. A loaded weapon symbolises lots of things - like the fact that Sydney is a much safer and nicer place than just about anywhere else in the world and we should all be working together to keep it that way. In terms of shooting people, well, yes we'd like to have a go at those most responsible for the crass commercialisation of the things we love the most (we know who you are) and those who have control over our drug supply - or lack thereof (you know who you are). Let's all pull together and make sure that the raves stay safe, friendly and as far removed from they prying eyes of the general public as possible. We care... we hope you all do too.

And now for this week's definitions, kiddies...

Why laser isn't spelt with a 'z': laser n. 1. Also called: optical masser. a device for converting light of mixed frequencies into an intense monochromatic beam of coherent light. 2. any similar device for producing a beam of electromagnetic radiation, such as infrared or microwave radiation. (light amplification by stimulated emission of radiation).
Who the Cartel are: Cartel n. 1. Also called: trust. a collusive association of independent enterprises formed to monopolize production and distribution of a product or service. 2. Politics. an alliance of parties to further common aims... (hmm...)
What an (illegal) Alien really is: alien n. 1. a person owing allegiance to a country other than that in which he lives. 2. any being or thing foreign to its environment. 3. (in science fiction) a being from another world. 4. Unnaturalised; foreign. 5. unfamiliar.
And what the fuck does Hedonist mean: Hedonism 1. Ethics a. the doctrine that moral value can be defined in terms of pleasure. b. the doctrine that the pursuit of pleasure is the highest good...
...Hope that made things a little clearer for you all.

Hallelujah is a fortnightly newsletter of sorts put together by who ever's around at the time. 1,000 copies are distributed free directly at events every second weekend. Extra copies are available from the Tuesday after publication at selected retail outlets including Reach'n Records and Risk on Crown St, and Central Station Records, Oxford St.

IT'S ALL IN YOUR MIND

We've given you guides to rave etiquette, a questionnaire to help you figure out if you belong or not, and regular tips on how to survive as a raver. But since our little mag is so unevenly distributed (if you want to help out just drop us a line!) you might have missed some of our past gems so here's a short but comprehensive set of lists and guide-lines to make sure you really know the score.

First Up -

Pick A Category:

Baby Ravers - Younger types who inspire protective instincts in the older more experienced members of the raver family. Are often unprepared and tend not to know their limits. Usually disappear before the sun comes up, generally because their parents expect them to do their homework on Sundays.

Label Ravers - Into being seen at the right places with the right people wearing the right clothes. Most important factors include not wearing the same items of clothing and shoes twice in a row. Trend setting haircuts are also essential. Preferred brands include Fila, Chippie, Champion, Stussy (although a tad passe now it's available at General Pants).

Celebrity Ravers - (aka 'Important People In The Rave Scene') Into being seen at the right places with the right people on the right drugs. Distinguishable by the fact that they pay for very little and have an air of knowing everything about everyone, even if they don't.

Hardcore Raver - Into hardcore music, hardcore dancing and hardcore drugs. Known to have ridiculous chemical tolerance and stamina. Characterised by their ability to dance hard for hours and hours and hours...

Softcore Ravers - Into soft music, groovy dancing and hardcore drugs. Usually older with a deep appreciation of soul and anthems although not adverse to a whack of good techno. Will try to go everywhere, often just to have a look and make sure they're not missing out on anything. Mostly hang out in large gangs looking peeved when the pharmaceuticals are scarce and spacey when they're in good supply. Favourite expression: 'Skin Up'.

Tragic Ravers - You know the ones. They look like they'd be better off in some suburban playground surrounded by like minded morons. They typically possess every item on the list of passe accessories (listed below) and try much, much too hard. Avoid at all costs because they are a really annoying species at the best of times.

Next - Some important lifestyle type things to remember, which are also useful when trying to explain to non-ravers why you do the things you do.

Tuesdays are for:

Coming down
Sleeping
Avoiding crowded places (eg shopping malls, supermarkets, work places)
Feeling sorry for yourself
Avoiding your parent's
Screening your calls
Growling at your friends (and saying 'It's

NATURE PAGE

SCIENTIFIC NAME: Glitterati Strutasaurus (sub-species - fashion victim)

COMMON NAMES: Kylie, Michael, Deni, Rebecca, Greg, Gumpy, Sophie, Brad, Melissa, etc.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES: Spray-on local designer garments, chunky retro platform shoes (males), heavily gelled hair (females), tacky fake body adornments.

EATING HABITS: As with most behavioural traits displayed by this species, the average strutasaurus follows the pack. Staple diet varies according to the dictates of fashion, often resulting in nutritional disorders. Current feeding trends include soya yam chips, lite focaccia, free-range designer salads, and lo-salt cappuccino.

DRINKING HABITS: Stoli & lime, boutique beers, Stoli & soda, anything vaguely aphrodisiac, still more Stoli.

MATING HABITS: Scientists fear for the survival of this species as they do not pair for reproductive purposes, only quick sexual gratification. Those few that do bond for life normally do so with their own reflection.

NATURAL HABITAT: The Strutasaurus herd has strong territorial boundaries, and normally tries to remain within the Paddinghurst triangle. Within this select area the herd will congregate in bars, clubs and cafes that supply any or all of the following - lots of mirrors (this one is vital), minimalist decor (ie uncomfortable chairs), spotlit platforms, conceited staff, stale food, exorbitant prices.

COMMON BEHAVIOURAL TRAITS: Preening, prancing, posing. The more active herd members indulge in a ritual wriggling dance involving crotch grabbing & eyelash fluttering. Can also be seen lounging outside cafes shivering, or attending ritual grooming sessions. Noted for its obsession with self-image and lack of humour.

SPECIES CALL: HelloDarlingwhere'veyoubeenhidingHaven'tseenyouinagesHowdid she getinWheredidyougetthatfrockYoulookgreatOh,here'sKylieimustgo&sayhelloCallyousoonsmoochsmooch.

SPECIES SUMMARY: The Glitterati Strutasaurus is an unusual genetic mutant produced by misled badly written "style" journals and nasty television advertising. This animal should be avoided as prolonged exposure could cause attitudinal damage.

SPECIES PROSPECT: We are relieved to report that the future is glum indeed for this particular species. Many suffer from disease caused by lack of suitable warm clothing and self imposed starvation. Poor learning skills coupled with bad breeding habits mean there may well be fewer of these nasty creatures strutting about.

SHERMAN'S SEX E-Z STEPS TO RAVING

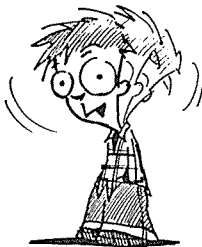

STEP 18

A LITTLE PICK-ME-UP.

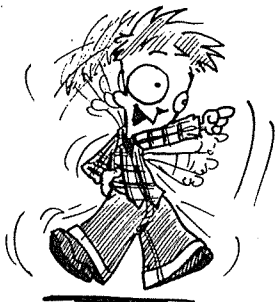

STEP 28

NOD YOUR HEAD IN A RATHER 'HARDCORE' FASHION IN TIME WITH THE BEAT.

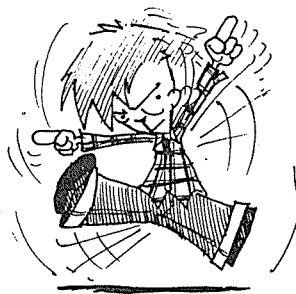

STEP 38

JUMP ABOUT IN A LOUD, ENERGETIC FASHION, WAVING ARMS IN AN ALTERNATING MOTION, (HAND ON HIP IS OPTIONAL) WHILST CONTINUING TO NOD HEAD.

STEP 48

EXPERIMENT! TRY AN OCCASIONAL LEG LIFT OR ARM SWITCH, JUMP FROM SIDE TO SIDE OR BACK TO FRONT.

STEP 58

AS ONE TENDS TO SWEAT WHILST RAVING FOR LONG HOURS, LAYERS OF CLOTHING MUST BE REMOVED. THE KEY TO ITS SUCCESS LIES IN DOING THIS WITHOUT STOPPING DANCING.

STEP 68

... AND THEN ONE CAN "GO OFF". REMEMBER, NO MATTER HOW VIOLENTLY YOU DANCE, PEOPLE WILL GET OUT OF YOUR WAY.
