A watched pot does boil! You have been watching this spot for weeks and Ravenous has appeared, or you never really noticed that Ravenous Raver use to appear here every issue, anyway I got off my ass and put an E in my effort and put pen to paper.

RESTAURANT TIPS

This week
1. SERVICE

Know what to expect - ie That cheap cafe you go to hang out at isn't going to provide crystal glasses on silk table cloths and use the force to Read your thoughts and serve your every whim - But at the same time that expensive restaurant you might go to every now and then, shouldn't don your lap with paper napkins and serve your wine in plastic cups. Beware of the Waitress, especially the rude, impatient, slow, arrogant and idle type - you are there to indulge and have a good time - don't stand for this kind! They should know what's on the menu and should fulfil all your needs and wants whether it's Pizza Hut or the Treasury Room at the Intercontinental Hotel. The best Waiters will be friendly and professional and should guide you in your choices. Never be afraid to ask about things you are unsure of - Don't take any crap! Next issue WAITER THERE'S A FLY IN MY SOUP!

editors note

Hi there! It's that time again, time again for the one and only, Juicy Red Apple - Issue 19.

This issue is an exciting one, we've changed a few things just to make it more interesting, for example, instead of a DJ profile we have a promoter profile - all the way from FINLAND, GREENWICH and ICELAND, it's.....sorry nothing that unbelievable, it's Brett - the man responsible for some of the best nights of your lives (the PRODIGY series, ENERGE and INSIGHT) is the man in the spotlight this issue (and he's proud to say he's from Sydney!). Before you come up to me and ask the same questions I've been asked all week,

(example... "What's happening with Pure?") Well here's what happened, it got CLOSED DOWN! and if you're pissed off, don't panic, it's now on February 12th (There was nothing to do on that weekend anyway and it is Valentines!!!). It's apparently going to be bigger and better this time round, so don't miss out! Hopefully those nice men in blue won't be able to shut it down, (don't hold me to that, they are police and they can do whatever they want!).

Before I tell you what else is in this fabulous new look issue let me give you all a little warning. Never, I repeat, Never Drive home along the spit bridge at 3am after a long Wednesday night out! Apparently young people driving around at this time doesn't go down well with the police... Last Thursday morning at 3am after Stun! Brave 3 friends and myself were merrily on our way home (with only 3 hours before I had to get up and go to work) and we were pulled over by the police! We were then all ordered out of the car and the car was searched... Then the policeperson went on to ask the driver incredibly strange questions about speakers amplifiers (read Ha Ha Very Funny to hear the conversation). Funnily enough none of us were breath tested, so we could have been as pissed as farts and gotten away with it!!! In the end the Policeperson decided that it was illegal for us to be driving around in this car because the upholstery on the back seat was torn... hmmm...?? Enough about police. I'm getting depressed! Also this issue, "50,000 ways to get into a rave for free", (not that many really), Ha Ha Very Funny, Our regular Week in the life of and loads more so be quick, don't miss out!!

carl cox mania Saturday 22nd January 1994

I'm not a DJ but I do know when I hear something amazing! DJ CARL COX did the most brilliant 2 hour set at MANIA on January 22nd. He wouldn't have had to look into the the crowd at all to see the incredible vibe surrounding him. I noticed that most of the people dancing stayed on the dancefloor for the whole set which you don't often see much during such a "HARDCORE" set. CARL COX is definately a "legend", judging by the way the crowd responded to him anyway. I was lucky enough to get a close-up look at the man of the moment during his set and he's very, very big! It's hard to believe that such a huge man can be so quick and precise on three decks. I think all of Sydney's DJ's felt the same way, they were all crowded around him with their jaws wide open and their eyes burning with jealousy! I guess there's no reason to be jealous though, if you'd been DJing for as long as this master has you'd probably be a wizard too.

Carl Cox's set (I'm sorry to say) was unequalled all night, but all of "our" DJ's played their finest which made for a very tired bunch of ravers the next day. Even though Mania was quite a HARD party, (music-wise), nobody seemed to mind, maybe everyone is just sick of anthems..... I doubt it!

funny

POLICE - "What's this amplifier here for?"

DRIVER - "It was attached to a stereo but my car was broken into and the stereo was stolen."

POLICE - "Who did you report it to?"

DRIVER - "I didn't."

POLICE - "Why?"

DRIVER - "My fathers car was broken into not long ago and they didn't do anything."

POLICE - "Well, What do you expect them to do?"

Does anybody else find this funny?

In this case the driver didn't respond. Maybe I'm wrong but isn't it their job to investigate?? - ED!
